

THE WHOLE NOTE

OUR WEEKLY NEWSLETTER - Pacific Coast Chorale

Mari's Memo: I hope you all have a wonderful Thanksgiving with friends and family, or can take some time to relax with some well earned quiet time!

Congratulations to John and Diego for a very successful concert, months, if not years in the making (besides the original 200 years.) I'm sure we are all thankful this one is now 'in the books'.

With more to come, before the year's end, I'd like to review a few dates:

YES, we have rehearsal this Saturday, Nov. 30th, from 9:30 - 11:30. We will be concentrating on our Dec. 15th concert with FPC. Those singing Dec. 4th with A. Bocelli, will have rehearsal Sun. Dec. 1, from 3-6 PM.

NO, we will not be rehearsing Dec. 21 nor Dec. 28, but many of us will be singing Dec. 21, 22, and 23 (see below). We will get to enjoy a nice break before returning ready to begin the new year with our first rehearsal January 4th, 2025, from 9:30 - 11:30 AM.

Have a great (Thanksgiving) week, Mari

The Whole Note Elves will be taking a break and NOT sending out a newsletter Dec. 17th or Dec. 24th. The next one: New Year's Eve. 🎉

A Note From the Maestro: With Thanksgiving upon us and the high spirits from Friday still lingering, I wanted to say thank you to everyone at CBO, PCC and ECAF. The amount of trust for you all to give me a chance with this is humbling and I do not take it for granted. People post the typical "what an unforgettable experience," but for me this week was foundational. I don't know how many B9's I have ahead of me, but this one at Escondido was irreplaceable. What a real privilege and joy (ha) to see this through with everyone involved. Thank you, thank you, thank you. All the best (and so ready for the next one), Diego Guerra
